Dear Chaney's Champions,

Chaney's legacy continues to impact lives in communities across North Carolina. I am pleased to report the most recent occurrence in Roxboro (NC).

On March, 11, 2019 just before 10:00 PM, our patrol division responded to a welfare check of an eighteen month old child wandering in the street. Apparently, little Deshawn, managed to open a door to his house and sneak out without anyone knowing. Officers located his mother and reunited the family. As you can see in the picture, little Deshawn smiled when Sgt. Cash provided a Chaney Bear. Little Deshawn took interest in the Chaney Bear tag and can be seen in the picture reading the tag.

The comfort the Chaney Bear provided Deshawn and relief of his mother is just another example of how Chaney's memory continues to Champion On.

Thank you for partnering with the Roxboro Police Department. Through our partnership, a potentially traumatic event was averted and will be remembered because of Chaney.

Respectfully,

David L. Hess
Chief of Police
