Dear Chaney's Champions,

Chaney's legacy continues to impact lives in communities across North Carolina, and now Wisconsin. I am pleased to report the most recent occurrence in Grafton (WI).

In May of 2019, a co-worker of Chief Hess' wife reached out to the Roxboro Police and Fire Departments requesting patches for Owen. Owen's family lives in Grafton, Wisconsin. Owen's sister was diagnosed with an aggressive form of cancer. The doctors told the family their precious little girl would not survive.

The Roxboro Police Department sent Owen a Chaney Bear. Sadly, Owen's twin sister died on June 6, 2019. Owen received the Bear a week after her passing. The family sent us this photograph of Owen with this Chaney Bear.

Thank you for partnering with the Roxboro Police Department. Through our partnership a potentially traumatic event was averted and will be remembered because of Chaney.

Respectfully,

David L. Hess
Chief of Police
